1. Website content

The content of the website is intended to provide information on Air Corporate's activities: air transport by jet and helicopter, education and training, aircraft management, and aircraft sale and purchase. Technical information on aircraft (range, speed, configurations, number of passengers) is indicative and may vary depending on the individual aircraft, the load, weather conditions and the route.

The information published does not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of Art. 1336 of the Italian Civil Code. Each flight is the subject of a specific offer upon request; transport is governed by the General Conditions of Carriage and by the contractual documents applicable from time to time.

2. Intellectual property

The texts, photographs, drawings, videos, trade marks, logos, graphics and layout of the website are the property of Air Corporate or of their respective owners and are protected by copyright law (Law 633/1941) and industrial property law (Legislative Decree 30/2005). 5. External links

The website may contain links to third-party websites (for example aviation authorities, technology partners, social networks). Air Corporate does not control such websites and is not responsible for their content or for their data processing policies.
